Why Generic Protocols Keep Failing You

Every autoimmune "solution" online tells you to do the same thing everyone else is doing. Cut the same foods. Take the same supplements. Follow the same 30-day plan.

And it doesn't work — not because you're doing it wrong, but because your gut isn't anyone else's gut. What flares me might not flare you. What healed me might only be part of your answer.

I learned that the hard way, at 27, while doctors handed me a short list: biologics for life, disability, or lose my colon. I built something else instead — a way to find my answer, not someone else's.

183 days. 50 lbs regained. Drug-free. One to two normal BMs a day.

That result didn't come from a protocol I found online. It came from a method. Here it is.

Introducing The T.R.A.C.K. Method

Five steps. Not a diet. Not a supplement stack. A way of finding what your body is actually telling you.

T — Track
Daily prompts that capture what matters, not just what you ate. Symptoms, sleep, stress, movement — the full picture, not one slice of it.

R — Reflect
Weekly review sessions where we look at your data together and find the patterns you can't see from inside your own days.

A — Adjust
A living protocol, not a fixed one. As your data changes, your plan changes with it — nothing rigid, nothing generic.

C — Connect
Direct support from someone who's done this from the inside, not a call center reading from a script.

K — Keep Proof
A running record of what's actually working, so you stop guessing and start knowing — the same record that got me through my 183 days.

What's Included

- 12 weeks of 1-on-1 coaching — weekly 30-minute sessions, built around your T.R.A.C.K. data
- Your personalized tracking system — a version of the journal built specifically around your symptoms and triggers
- Direct message support between sessions for the moments that can't wait a week
- A community of people doing the same work — for the days you need someone who gets it
- Lifetime access to your own tracked data and protocol, even after coaching ends

This works alongside your medical team, not instead of them. I'm not a doctor, and this isn't a replacement for your care plan — it's the missing piece that helps you and your doctor understand what's actually happening in your body.

Real Progress, Not Promises

"I'd been tracking for months with nothing to show for it. Within six weeks of actually knowing what to look for, I found two triggers I'd missed for two years."

— Placeholder testimonial for portfolio purposes; replace with a real client quote once available.

Before You Book, You're Probably Wondering...

"I've already tried tracking apps and diets — why would this be different?" +

"Is this instead of my doctor?" +

"What if I don't have the energy for another program right now?" +

The Offer

One 12-week coaching container. One clear system. One person guiding you through it — not a course you complete alone, not a supplement subscription, not another app you'll abandon by week three.

P.S. — You don't need to have this figured out before you book. That's what the call is for. If you're still guessing at what's actually happening in your body, this is the fastest way I know to stop.
